Cricket Tea.

Mrs. Kenneth Cousens and Mr. Charles Herbert were hosts at an attractive tea given on Wednesday afternoon at the home of the latter on Koonamoku street. The officers of the New Zealand, especially the members of the cricket team, were the guests of honor. Both the players and spectators of the cricket match which was going on in the field opposite, came in during intervals of the game to partake of the refreshing punch and to meet the other invited guests. In the receiving line were Mrs. Kenneth Cousens, Mrs. Charles Herbert, Mrs. Rentiers, Mrs. Henry Winkley and Mrs. George Humphrey. Mrs. John Osborne and Mrs. Frank Halstead poured tea, while Mrs. Winkley and Mrs. Humphrey presided over the punch bowl.

The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion with white lilies and yellow coreopsis, palms, ferns and potted plants. On the tea table in the dining room a large basket of real exotics made a brilliant centerpiece.

Among the invited guests were: British Consul and Mrs. Rentiers, Canon and Mrs. John Osborne, Canon and Mrs. Potwine, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Halstead, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Winkmony with a spirit of romance entirely in keeping with the stars and lat moon overhead.

Among those who attended this jolly party were Mrs. W. H. Stuart, Mrs. Alexander Pratt, Mrs. Emmans, Mrs. Green, Miss Edith Pratt, Miss Carrie James, Miss Ethel James, Miss Frances Josephson, Miss Helene von Ainswaldt, Miss Zaldia de la Nux, Miss Evelyn de la Nux, Mr. H. Webber, Mr. I. Webber, Mr. Frank James, Mr. Foster and Mr. William Rasmussen.

The following invitations have been received by local people during the week:

Mrs. Lydia C. Lucas requests the honor of your presence at the marriage of her daughter to Mr. William B. Lymer on Wednesday evening, August the sixth at eight fifteen o'clock 1234 Beretania avenue Honolulu, T. H.

Mrs. Cook's Bridge Tea.

Mrs. Emma Cooley was the guest of honor at a charmingly appointed bridge tea yesterday afternoon when Mrs. Frederick Cook entertained at her home at Fort Shafter. Several interesting rubbers of bridge were played after which other ladies came in to tea and to watch the regimhan, Mrs. Ira Longaneker and Mrs. Otto Rosenbaum.

Dinner for Departing Masons.

A jolly stag dinner was given by a few local Masons on Tuesday night in honor of the visiting Masons who sailed Wednesday by the Wilhelmnia. The table was attractively decorated with red carnations and maidenhair fern, with other accessories in keeping. Toasts were made during the dinner by Mr. W. P. Filmer, Mr. W. R. Farrington, Mr. T. H. Petrie, Mr. Baker, Mr. Hilderton, Mr. Vetleson and Mr. George W. Smith, toastmaster. Those who were present at the affair were the guests of honor, Mr. W. P. Filmer, Mr. Baker, Mr. Hilderton, Mr. J. D. Tucker, Mr. J. McLean, J. S. Henriques, W. H. Goetz, John Kildwell, G. G. Bockus, L. M. Vetleson, J. Monarrat, Walter Schiefel, B. H. Marten, J. H. Ehrhorn, C. S. Jenkins.

Mrs. Clark's Card Party.

Capt. and Mrs. C. F. Clark are entertaining this evening at seven tables of bridge at their bungalow at Fort Ruger. Those who will be present are Major and Mrs. E. H. Timberlake, Capt. and Mrs. J. Johnston, Capt. and Miss Violet Atherton, Miss Laura Atherton, Miss Grace Dawson, Miss Constance Reed, Miss Fanny Hoogs, Miss Letitia Morgan, Miss Thoda Cockcroft, Miss Charlotte Cockcroft, Mr. Donald Ross, Mr. James Morgan, Mr. Will Morgan, Mr. Will Hoogs, Mr. Steele, Mr. Henderson, Mr. Harry Styner, Mr. Arthur Gilman and Mr. Vincent Genoves.

Miss Eloise Wichman's Supper.

The Country Club was the scene of a charming little affair last night when Miss Eloise Wichman entertained at a Dutch supper. The table was beautifully decorated with golden shower and yellow butterflies, while dainty butterflies also marked the guests' places. After supper the guests danced to the music of the popular electric piano. The Country Club is an ideal place for an affair of this kind, there seeming to be something in the atmosphere which immediately dispels all formality, and the pleasures of last night's event were more than enhanced by the glorious moon which shone down from over the Pall top. Miss Wichman's guests were Miss Elizabeth Carter, Ruth Soper, Ruth Anderson, Pauline Schaefer, Mary von Holt, Margaret Center, Margaret Jones, Rosamund Swanzy and Messrs Jack Galt, Carter Galt, Herman von Holt, Frederick Schaefer, Donald Lewis, Truman Smith, Allan Keston, Alexander Anderson and Francis Brown.

SOCIAL NOTES

Capt. and Mrs. John Thomas, Miss Helen Alexander, Miss Betty Case and Lieut. Carl Bostrom are spending the week on Maui at the Baldwin home on Haleakala. They are planning to take a long tramp around the island on horseback, visiting all the points of interest on Maui.

At a large tea given on Tuesday af-originally planned. The younger set are delighted to hear this as the boys have been very popular during their visit here.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Robinson are receiving the congratulations of their friends upon the birth of a son.

British Consul and Mrs. Rentiers entertained informally at dinner on Sunday in honor of Capt. Halsey and Commander H. E. Grace.

Mrs. H. M. Johnston and her daughters, Ruth, Grace and Sybil Johnston, will sail on the Sierra, July 26th, for an extended visit on the mainland.

Mrs. Hunter-Jones and her daughter Miss Crichton Hunter-Jones, are sailing on the 26th for San Francisco. After meeting her other daughter, Miss Beryl, the family will tour the coast cities, later spending several months in the eastern states and Canada.

Mrs. H. W. Hyman who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Philip Peck, for several months past, sailed on the Wilhelmnia for her home in San Francisco.

A delightful card party was given last night at Fort de Russy with Lieut. and Mrs. Huntington as hosts, and Lieut. and Mrs. Edwin O'Hara as the guests of honor. The latter are the post's newest bride and groom and will no doubt be the motifs for many social events in the near future. Other guests at last night's affair were Capt. and Mrs. Norris Stayton, Capt. and Mrs. Charles D. Winn, Capt. and Mrs. C. W. Waller, Lieut. and Mrs. E. O. Kremers, Mr. and Mrs. George Tackabury, Lieut. H. H. Zornig, Dr. L. Mudd, Lieut. R. Tilton, Miss Winter, Miss MacDonald and Miss Yates. Both Semi-Final Best.

The ten round semi-final was easily the event of the evening. Stout, of the 1st Infantry, was down to meet Hyle, of the Cavalry, but the E Troop man being unable to appear, Harris of the same regiment was substituted, and though he lost the decision, he put up the pluckiest fight that has been seen here in many months. For the first six rounds the cavalryman seemed able to land at ease with a straight left to jaw, which kept Stout's head on the snap pretty much of the time, but in the seventh, Stout began to cut Harris with lefts and rights to the face, recovered himself, and pulled out of a fight that seemed all but lost to him a few rounds earlier. There were a few fans who did not agree with Major Butts in the decision, but it gave general satisfaction as the aggressive rushes during the last three rounds gave each of these rounds to Stout, Harris landing but seldom. Both men received severe punishment. Harris sporting a lip like a duck bill at the finish. The grit of both men made a big hit with the crowd and the cheers at the finish were not alone for the winner. Major Butts voiced the feelings of the crowd when, as he held Stout's hand in the air, he grabbed Harris hand to congratulate him for his fine showing. Schofield fans expect to see these two matched again here.

Morgan Still Game. The preliminaries were referred by Sergeant Morgan of the Twenty-fifth who announced that though he is forty-one years old he has one good fight left.

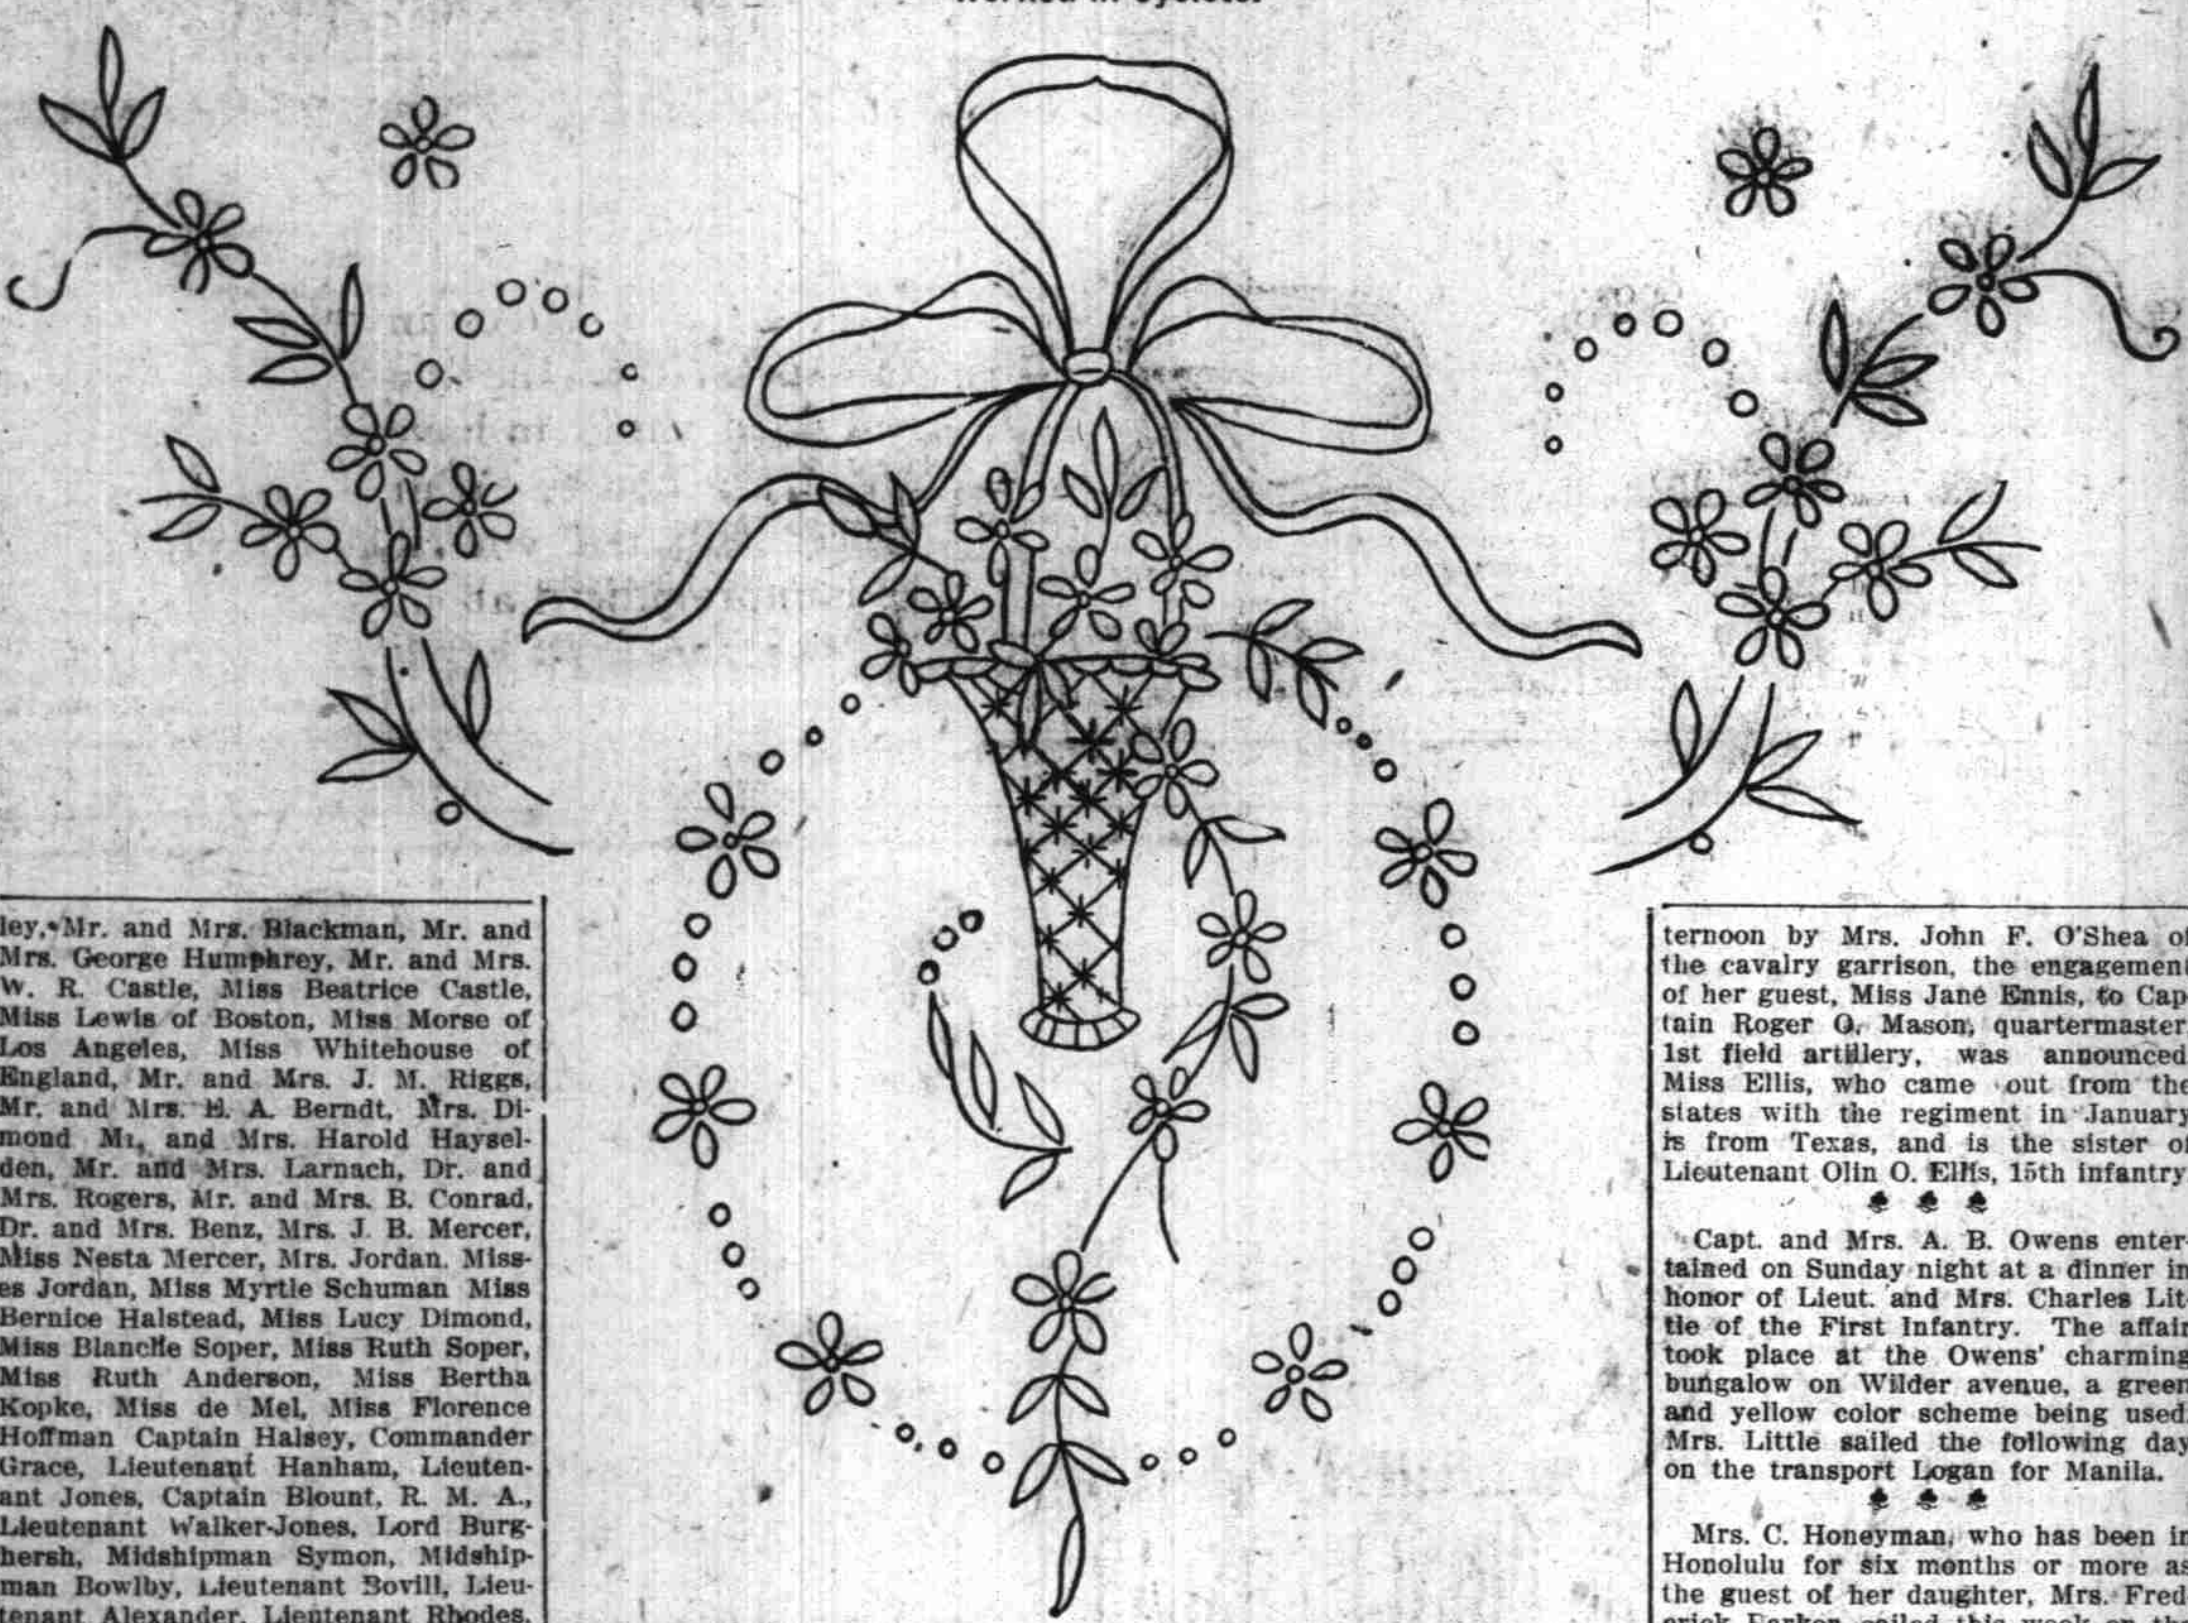

It is understood that the management hopes to show the heavy weight champion of the army against Harris, of the same regiment, at an early date, that the fans may see him in action. The first preliminary between Charlton and Brown, both of the 25th Infantry, went to the second round, when the former took the count. As a comedy stunt this event was a scream.

The second preliminary showed Pernel, who won his fight last month, against Walker, both of the 1st Infantry. Walker had his nose broken in almost the first exchange of blows and took the count before the round was half over being felled by a left hook.

McCloud, a coast fighter, challenged any fighter on the island at 150 pounds and his appearance made a favorable impression with the fans.

The house was crowded to the doors, a large delegation of the Honolulu fraternity being present.

Beach Party at Waikiki.

The big summer moon which has shone impartially on so many outdoor events this week, was the incentive for a very jolly beach party on Wednesday when Messrs. Merlan and Lloyd Emmans were hosts at Waikiki. After taking a cooling plunge in the salt Pacific, the party built a huge bonfire on the beach, and roasted potatoes and "hot dogs" as an addition to the toothsome supper which they had brought along. Later musical instruments were produced, and the evening spent in song and close harmonies. The first prize, a silver sardine fork, was won by Mrs. W. R. Gibson, while the second, a lemon fork, went to Mrs. Charles S. Lincoln. Mrs. Larry MacAfee won the consolation—a pretty embroidered tea apron; and a guest prize, a beautiful silk bag, was presented to Miss Cooley. Among those present were Mrs. George H. Jamerson, Mrs. Paul B. Malone, Mrs. W. R. Gibson, Mrs. Peter Marquart, Mrs. Robert McCleave, Mrs. Joseph Kay, Mrs. Benjamin Watkins, Mrs. James E. Bell, Mrs. Charles S. Lincoln, Mrs. George Turner, Mrs. Larry MacAfee, Mrs. C. H. Wright, Mrs. H. F. Nichols, Mrs. G. F. Humbert, Mrs. Ressler, Mrs. F. P. Jackson, Mrs. George D. Graham, Mrs. A. J. Booth, Mrs. Roe, Mrs. A. J. Harris, Mrs. M. J. Lenihan, the Misses Leni-

Mrs. Carpenter, Dr. and Mrs. Baker, Lieut. Applin, Lieut. and Mrs. G. F. Humbert, Mrs. Ressler, Lieut. von Deuren, Capt. and Mrs. Norris Stayton, Mr. and Mrs. Waller, Dr. and Mrs. Huntington, Lieut. and Mrs. Edwin O'Hara and Mr. and Mrs. George W. Bailey.

Mrs. Hepburn's Supper Dance.

Miss Mary O'Brien was the guest of honor at a delightful supper dance last night when Mrs. H. M. Hepburn entertained at her home on Thurston avenue. About thirty young people sat down to a table prettily decorated in white and gold—Shasta daisies and little yellow flowers being used. During the supper Kaal's quintet played, afterwards breaking into ragtime, to which the guests danced. Those who were invited to meet Miss O'Brien were Miss Marguerite Wadman, Miss Gemma Wadman, Miss Myrtle Schuman, Miss Helen Spalding, Miss Sara Lucas, Miss Jessie Kennedy, Miss Elizabeth Earle, Miss Ruth Hyde, Miss Ambrose, Miss Horne, Miss Christiana Bradley, Miss Genevieve Bradley, Messrs. McCourt, McCloskey, Wilcox, Bieger, Argabrite, Workman, Halm, Terry, Dent, Maple, Cass, Gragg and Stanley Kennedy.

Smoker at the University Club.

One of the most enjoyable smokers that has taken place for many moons, occurred Tuesday night when the members of the Pacific and University clubs entertained in this fashion at the latter's clubhouse. The affair was in honor of the officers of the New Zealand. About a hundred guests were present.

Miss Marjory Gilman's Supper-Dance.

An affair which combined three popular varieties of amusement took place last night when Miss Marjory Gilman entertained for Miss Mabel Hill. The party commenced with a number of thrilling canoe rides and a refreshing swim. Then a substantial Dutch supper was served, after which the time was spent in dancing. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. John B. Guard, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hoogs, ternoon by Mrs. John F. O'Shea of the cavalry garrison, the engagement of her guest, Miss Jane Ennis, to Captain Roger O. Mason, quartermaster, 1st field artillery, was announced. Miss Ellis, who came out from the states with the regiment in January is from Texas, and is the sister of Lieutenant Olin O. Ellis, 15th Infantry.

Capt. and Mrs. A. B. Owens entertained on Sunday night at a dinner in honor of Lieut. and Mrs. Charles Little of the First Infantry. The affair took place at the Owens' charming bungalow on Wilder avenue, a green and yellow color scheme being used. Mrs. Little sailed the following day on the transport Logan for Manila.

Mrs. C. Honeyman, who has been in Honolulu for six months or more as the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Frederick Barker, sailed this week on the Makura. She will visit her son in Vancouver before returning to her home in Portland.

Mrs. Harry Lewis will sail on the next Sierra with her son, Donald Lewis, for Berkeley, where Donald will go back to school. Mrs. Lewis will spend several months in California before returning to Hawaii.

Capt. George Steuenburg of the 25th Infantry was the guest of honor at a picnic today given by Lieut. C. S. Tinker and Miss Genevieve Tinker.

Mrs. J. C. Janda and Miss Genevieve Tinker of Lilehua, spent a few days in town this week as the guests of Capt. and Mrs. Arthur B. Owens.

Mrs. L. O. Mathews, wife of Lieut. Mathews of Fort Shafter, has been confined to her room for a week, her friends are sorry to hear.

Capt. and Mrs. Peter Marquart and Lieut. and Mrs. J. C. Kay, spent the week end at Kahala as the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Trotter.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Cameron entertained on Tuesday at a delightful dinner at the Moana Hotel. Covers were laid for eight.

Dear to the Hearts of the Women.

DR. T. FELIX GOURAUD'S

Oriental Cream

OR MAGICAL BEAUTIFIER

An Indispensable and Necessary Article for Particular Women who Desire to Retain a Youthful Appearance.

Every woman owes it to herself and loved ones to retain the charm of youth nature has bestowed upon her. For over half a century this article has been used by actresses, singers and women of fashion. It renders the skin like the softness of velvet leaving it clear and pearly white and is highly desirable when preparing for daily or evening attire. As it is a liquid and non-greasy preparation, it remains unnoticed. When attending dances, balls or other entertainments, it prevents a greasy appearance of the complexion caused by the skin becoming heated.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream cures skin diseases and relieves Sunburn. Removes Tan, Pimples Blackheads, Moth Patches, Rash, Freckles and Vulgar Redness.

For sale by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.
